

Sociology of Genocide Seminar

("Holocaust" in student handbook) Open to Juniors and Seniors.

Have you ever wondered how an event such as the Holocaust occurred? What about other genocides like the one occurring in Sudan as you read this sentence? In this course, we are facing history and our own human behavior.

Testimonies from students

"By far the best class and teacher I've ever had, Sociology of Genocide made me be completely honest with myself, challenging every belief I've ever held. It wasn't just a class it was a rite of passage."

- Olivia Ray

"I loved being able to discuss serious topics and be completely comfortable sharing anything"

- Elizabeth Anderson

"[Mr. Habib] taught us to not only learn history but to learn from history... we learn[ed] the true value of knowledge... [and] that we can use it to make a difference in the world."
