

MODERN CALIFORNIA LITERATURE AND HISTORY

Earn five units in English and five units in Social Studies with this semester-long interdisciplinary class.

Questions?

Contact
Ms. Navarro
Inavarro@pausd.org

or

Ms. Ichikawa
dichikawa@pausd.org

How did Hollywood and LA become what they are today? What kind of effect will immigration have on California? How does being on the west coast change the perspectives of war? Students will have a chance to examine these questions and more as they study modern historic events and literature from a California standpoint. (No, we won't drive down Route 66, but we will head to a couple nearby places to get some first-hand experience with the history and literature.)