1. Minutes from September 14, 2009 are approved.
2. Ms. Hall reminded us to turn in the time cards. Class officers are the only people who can sign off on Homecoming hours on the time cards. Ms. Hall will sign people off for attending the luncheon. Ms. Hall has forms for people who want to be CASC representatives.
3. There is no new budget.
 - 4-1. At the board meeting, they went over central plans for Gunn. The changing of the color scheme has been noted.
 - 4-2. Maayan and Riley had a Spirit Committee meeting where they brainstormed the opening of the night rally.
5. Ting-Ting has contact lists for the judges as well as homecoming to-do lists for run-throughs next week. Groups need to get supplies
6. Club day is tomorrow. Clubs with advisor forms turned in are all approved, the clubs without are approved as pending.
7. Riley wants 375 shirts that cost a total of $2,658.75. SEC unanimously approved.
8. Raz wants five stamps for a total of $37.23. SEC approved.
- 9-1. Miles has sign-ups for talk to me shirt sizes to be passed around. The shirts will cost $5 each.
- 9-2. 83 seniors still have not had their senior portraits taken.
- 9-3. Stanford parking seniors had to share with the Paly choir.
- 9-4. Ms. Hall suggested floats coming onto campus Wednesday instead of Thursday. SEC will need to hire security for Wednesday night. Float stuffing will happen on Wednesday and last minute building will be allowed since the classes will be deprived of one day. Fall sport practices go from 3:30 so building will go from 12:00 to 3:00. SEC unanimously approved. Ms. Hall still needs airbands practicing times as well as an mp3 of the class airbands music.
- 9-5. Maddie will talk to YCS today about Jar Wars.
- 9-6. Dembo debrief is starting this Thursday so get ready for your grilling interviews.
